

Villa Tafuri

In silence, amid the four winds, this building has dominated for more than six centuries the enormous expanse of land with vineyards and centuries-old olive trees.

Villa Tafuri was built in the 15th century as a fortified tower to protect itself from attacks from the sea.

In the 17th century, the Tafuri barons, who no longer needed protection, transformed the tower into a magnificent manor house, a masterpiece of Baroque architecture.

It is a medieval tower that has been transformed in time into a noble villa, enriching the construction with numerous baroque decorations.

On the façade, in fact, decorations and capitals carved in the local "carparo" stone were added and the interior was enriched with various decors, frescoes, vaults, arches and noble emblems of the family. On the other hand, the small doors in the interior of the building are evidence of the construction dating back to the Middle Ages.

Finally, on the outside, a charming citrus grove, decorated with columns, has been created.

The mild climate in winter and the warmth of the rest of the year allow them to enjoy the outdoors in all seasons.

A chef on site can be requested for the week or for special evenings and this will make the stay even more pleasant.

Customers will also have the opportunity to discover our production of handmade soaps, “Marlo”, a natural cosmetics project that we have just launched.

Regarding the geographical position, only a few minutes from the crystal-clear sea, the property offers the possibility to quickly reach the Ionian coast and its famous white sandy beaches.

The villa is located among the three baroque towns of Galatone, Galatina and Nardò, rich in history, where countless historical residences, palaces and "masserias" are concentrated...allowing for cultural outings just a few steps away.

We also offer guided tours of the eclectic villas in the "Cenate" area of Nardò, between the sea and the town, a unique place known for this concentration of historical villas that recall the rich period in Salento.

For sportsmen, the country roads between the stone walls all around the property are ideal for cycling to the sea or in the direction of Galatina.

Other activities include: horseback riding on the beach, boat rental, bicycle rental (classic or electric), yoga classes, cooking classes, olive oil and wine tasting among the various well-known masserias of the region... or, why not, private dinners in sumptuous palaces.
