Art & Culture - Alphonse Mucha Exhibition

Hotel L'Orologio invites you to an extraordinary experience in the heart of Florence, the city of art and culture. Don't miss the opportunity to immerse yourself in the fascinating world of one of the greatest Czech artists, the father of Art Nouveau.

The Alphonse Mucha Exhibition

From October 27th 2023 to April 7th 2024, Arthemisia and Museo degli Innocenti will host the first exhibition dedicated to Alphonse Mucha in Florence.

This extraordinary Czech artist shaped the art of his time and beyond, profoundly influencing the Belle Époque in Paris and the world at large. At the center of his iconic works are female figures that gave origin to the myth of "The Women of Mucha " and became a symbol of the era, representing a unique fusion of the sacred and the profane.

Alphonse Mucha is known not only for his captivating artworks but also for his patriotic and social commitment, which led him to create The Slav Epic, a colossal work that tells the Slavic history through twenty enormous canvases.

Your Stay at Hotel L'OrologioS

Hotel L'Orologio is located within walking distance of the Museo degli Innocenti, where the exhibition will be held. After a day exploring the art of Alphonse Mucha, you will relax in our beautiful hotel and enjoy the comfort of our rooms, a cozy atmosphere and impeccable service.

The Offer Includes:

- Two or more nights' stay at Hotel L'Orologio Florence in your preferred room category.
- A bottle of prosecco upon arrival
- One ticket per person to the Alphonse Mucha Exhibition at the Museo degli Innocenti.
- Small buffet breakfast
- Complimentary Wi-Fi
- Free crib
- 0/3 - year-old children free when sharing room with parents
- 10% VAT and services included.
- To avail of this offer, a minimum stay of 2 nights is required.

Services/treatments included in the package

- Bottle of prosecco on arrival
- One ticket per person to visit Alphonse Mucha Exhibition at Museo degli Innocenti