Olive Oil Routes

Embark on a unique journey paying homage to one of nature's most cherished gifts generously bestowed upon the island of Naxos.

This culinary experience serves as a significant reflection of local culture, delving back at least 5,000 years to the age of Naxos' oldest olive tree. Immerse yourself in an idyllic olive oil tasting amid an olive grove in a quaint village, guided by the young and passionate owner. Visit the 5,000-year-old tree, witness life's endurance, and explore a modern olive oil press.

Uncover the evolution of olive oil extraction technology and its impact on standards with a visit to both a contemporary and traditional press, offering a taste of the rich flavors inherent in olive oil-based treats.

Traditional Cooking Class

Today's experience unfolds in a charming hilltop setting offering panoramic views of the sea and the farming lands of southwest Naxos.

Explore a small dairy facility owned by a young couple who tend to their vegetable garden and animals. Immerse yourself in the culinary arts as Yannis, the farmer, guides guests in milking goats, crafting cheese, and preparing a delightful meal over an open fire.

Katerina, his wife, shares the secrets of cooking local recipes with fresh ingredients. Conclude the experience by gathering under the shade of an olive tree to savor the feast.

Naxos Wine Tour

In this unique experience you will visit two family vineyards in two different areas of Naxos. Your first stop will be at your escort's family vineyard, where you will enjoy an informative tour of the vines and a private wine tasting.

He will then join you on your drive to the mountains of Naxos, where you will visit the second vineyard of the day, this time a 100 year old, pre-phyllloxera vineyard, situated at an altitude of 750m and built amphitheatrically on a mountain cliff.

There you will go on a 10 minute hike and explore the differences in vines, terroir, pruning techniques etc. before you sit down to enjoy 3 samples of traditional that perfectly represents the traditional wine culture of Naxos.

Northern Beauty, Wild & Delicious

Explore the remote part of the island, starting at a renovated olive press museum to learn about traditional olive oil production.

Taste various olive oil products before heading to the picturesque village of Koronos. Wander through its narrow streets and visit a family-owned tavern.

Continue your journey through the mountains to reach the secluded bay of Lionas for a swim and fresh seafood at a family-owned beach tavern.

Finally, stop in the charming village of Halki for a traditional coffee or dessert on your way back.

Hidden Vantage Point with A View

During this 4.5 km moderate hike, you will be able to discover how the inhabitants lived back in the day when they had to find shelter from pirates and immerse yourself with the traditions that have become a part of everyday life.

Accompanied by a licensed guide/instructor, you will follow the route around Danakons, one of the oldest villages on the island that remained untouched through centuries, famous for the impressive fortified Fotodotis monastery and beautiful, refreshing Danakos springs.

You will then continue towards Mt Zas, the mountain in which, according to Greek mythology, Zeus hid from his father Kronos until he was strong enough to fight the Titans.

The mountain provides a memorable panoramic view of the East Coast of the island, and plenty of photo opportunities.

The Mountain Of God Zeus

A climb to the summit of Mt. Zas, the highest peak of Cycladic islands.

Walking up the old footpath which connects Agia Marina (St. Marina) with the summit of the mountain, you will encounter interesting and rare species of fauna and flora.

During the trek, you will also have the chance to admire unique views of the Aegean Sea and the surrounding islands.

A unique experience, where you will create unforgettable memories.

Rural Landscape Amid Rocky Mountains

The starting point of this hike will be the well-known traditional village of Apeiranthos.

As you hike down the old mule trail from Apeiranthos to the emery mines, you will initially see a forested area, full of oaks and maple trees. Visit two significant churches of the area; Agios Ioannis Theologos, a rare example of byzantine architecture and Agia Kyriaki, one of the most important byzantine monuments in the Balkan region and a rare example of aniconic frescoes. The natural setting varies along the way and as you get closer to the bridge, the landscape becomes rugged.

On your way back to the village, cross a fertile piece of land, full of olive groves and vineyards. This is a hike of geological and geomorphological interest. You will also get to savor some snacks and refreshments at a local Kafeneio.

The background of the image shows ancient stone ruins, likely a temple or a public building, situated on a hillside overlooking a vast, blue sea. The ruins consist of several large, rectangular stone blocks, some of which are still standing and forming a partial structure. The sky is clear and blue, and the sea extends to the horizon. The overall scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a clear day.
