A photograph of two flamingos in flight over a body of water. The flamingo in the foreground is captured mid-stride, with its long legs extended and wings spread wide. It is splashing water, creating a dynamic splash of white droplets. The second flamingo is slightly behind and to the left, also in flight. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green, suggesting a natural habitat. The overall color palette is dominated by teal and green tones.

GROTTE IS ZUDDAS

Distance: 35 km

Travel Time: 40 mins

The Is Zuddas caves with its entrance on the side of Monte Meana, 236 m above the sea level, are situated 6 km away from Santadi.

Inside the caves, along a designated walkway of approximately 500 meters, at a constant temperature of 16°C, it is possible to have a walk through wonderful concretions of incredible shape (stalactites and stalagmites).

The Santadi's surroundings offer on the one hand stupendous fine white beaches, on the other splendid mountain chains. Thanks to its geographical position, Santadi has a mild climate, which allows production of some of the most famous and appreciated wines of Sardinia.

NORA

Distance: 12 km

Travel Time: 18 mins

Recognized by historians as the oldest settlement in Sardinia, the Nora archaeological site overlooks the beautiful bay of Pula.

Founded by the Phoenicians, Carthaginians and later conquered by the Roman Empire, Nora has always been a strategic commercial hub in the Mediterranean routes.

Of this rich past the archaeological site track leads in the remains of the baths mosaics, the theatre, the Carthaginian dwellings and ancient paving of roads and Roman temples.

BARUMINI

Distance: 105 km

Travel Time: 1 hour and 27 mins

Barumini is a town in the inside area of Sardinia, which hosts the nuragic complex “Su Nuraxi”, belonging to a period of great expansion of proto-Sardinian civilization which is a unique in the World and represents, with its grand architecture, the most important and best preserved nuragic settlement, recently recognized World heritage site by UNESCO.

MINES / PORTO FLAVIA

Distance: 103 km

Travel Time: 1 hour and 38 mins

The landscape and culture of Sardinia have been deeply marked by the mining activity, particularly traceable in the ancient towns of Buggerru, Malfidano, Nebida and Masua.

Here there are important underground realities and majestic examples of industrial archeology such as the Henry Gallery and Porto Flavia mine together with the Mine Machines Museum.

Settlements for mining purposes in the area date back to the days of Carthaginians, and in this area it is possible to admire a wonderful example of Punic-Roman temple, the Temple of Antas dedicated to the god revered by the Sardinian people, the Sardus Pater.

CAGLIARI

Distance: 48 km

Travel Time: 50 mins

Cagliari is a melting pot of cultures, sea, sun blend in a natural setting like no other place.

Cagliari offers more than just one reason to visit the city. Thanks to its mild climate, making it an ideal year-round destination, Cagliari sums up well in its historic districts - Castello, Villanova, Marina and Stampace - the influences resulting from the different dominations had throughout history.

A walk through the “Castello” district that retains its medieval urban layout, allows the visit to important monuments, and at the same time to dwell in antique shops, artisans and designers, together with the rich gastronomic offer and trade in general, are full and always keep alive the streets of this and all the other historic districts.

YACHT EXCURSION

A private yacht is available to charter offering the chance to set sail on a short voyage of discovery, exploring the finest Sardinian beaches and coastline.

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

BIKING

Sardinia is often described as almost a continent in itself by many travellers, and you'll see why on this unforgettable journey by bike as we discover the island's diversity of landscapes, fascinating history, and distinctive cultures.

Our sports team can organise "ad hoc cycling tours" in the nearby areas.

HIKING

For many, the best way to discover the beauty and diversity of beautiful countryside is on foot, and nowhere is that truer than Sardinia. Keen ramblers will not be disappointed by the island's wide choice of hiking possibilities. What the mountains may lack in height, they make up for in the solitude that their untouched wilderness provides.

HORSEBACK

Often referred to as the “Land of Horses”, Sardinia is a place where you do not need to be an expert to enjoy a horseback riding holiday. Horse riding can be practiced by anyone, it is the element that distinguishes an original nature holiday by providing a unique experience that will remain with you for ever.

Discover your passion riding in the Land of Horses amid the pristine beaches and breath-taking scenery of Sardinia.

WATERSPORT & DIVING

The sea in Sardinia is a diver's paradise. You can weave your way around corals, rocks, sponges, octopus and scorpionfish, perhaps coming across the odd wartime wreck too!

Swim among red sea fans, giant groupers and moray eels and explore the underwater caves and the labyrinthine rocks. There's an endless number of things to discover in this extraordinary setting that never ceases to amaze.

The winds blowing along our coastline are a boon to sailors and windsurfers, while the clear waters and rock-free seabed make waterskiing and jet skiing and diving even more thrilling and safe.

Watersport Activities:

- Canoa/Kayak
- Windsurf
- Hobie Cat
- Stand Up Paddle
- Water Ski
- Jetski

GOLF

Just 10 minutes from Forte Village, play the 27-hole Is Molas course, one of the most famous courses in Europe and an official site for the Italian International Open. It is surrounded by some of Sardinia's best scenery, with the Mediterranean sea and scrub. And, also available, a private shuttle to transport you to this corner of paradise.
