THE ALTIPLANO PATH

---

Embark on a full day adventure and take this amazing journey from Puno to Cusco, crossing through breathtaking landscapes on its almost 400 km between the two cities in a spacious and very comfortable vehicle. Along the way you will discover the magnificent Andean mountains and its changing and beautiful scenery, passing by vicuñas and alpacas.

 Duration: 10.5 hr

 Content: Archeology Landscaping

 Season: All year around

The image shows two ancient stone structures, likely pre-Inca, built into a sandstone cliff face. The structures are cylindrical and feature a lattice-like pattern of rectangular openings. The foreground is filled with green grass and numerous bright yellow wildflowers. The background is a large, textured sandstone wall with some faint, larger-scale rock art or carvings visible. The overall scene is a scenic view of an archaeological site in a natural setting.

On route, you can admire archeological sites, colonial art, prehistoric history, scenic landscapes and delight your palate with a delicious Picnic lunch in one of the most amazing Andean settings, Tinajani Canyon.
