Just a breath away from the golden beach and Ios town, Liostasi, is rightfully considered a jewel amongst boutique hotels in Ios island of Greece.

Day 3
Private Tour: Folegandros from los on Sealink 3

Start your private rib experience off with a memorable journey that will take you to visit some of the most untouched corners of the Cyclades.

Named after the son of king Minos, this island's wild beauty, authentic touch along with its traditional Cycladic architecture, breathtaking views and secluded beaches, make it an ideal destination for anyone seeking to see the natural beauty of the Cyclades.

Take the opportunity to walk along the picturesque streets of Chora and follow the stone path leading up to the impressive church of Panagia, located on the highest spot of the island. Allegedly built on the site of an ancient temple, the church hosts significant ancient immured inscriptions and statues' pedestals in its yard and interior and has a gorgeous view to the sea.

Alternately, you relax and enjoy any of its wild, untouched beaches.

PLEASE NOTE: The final itinerary will be subject to weather conditions and captain's approval. Travelive cannot guarantee the specific itinerary ahead of time. Fuel cost is included for the suggested itinerary, for any additional mileage/fuel charges payment will be made to captain at close of charter.

Elies Resorts is situated right in the middle of Vathi, one of the most picturesque bays of Sifnos. This ideal location allows the hotel to enjoy in summertime the glorious sunlight all day long while at the same time it protects it from the Aegean winds. Vathi, with its long golden beach and the nearby beautiful village, is located 10 kilometers away from the capital, Apollonia, and 15 kilometers from the port of Kamares, while it is in close proximity to other popular beaches, such as Chrisopigi and Platis Yialos, and not far from traditional villages, like Kastro and Artemonas.

Day 7
Private Tour: Serifos from Sifnos on Sealink 3

Located in the Western Cyclades, the island of Serifos has retained its traditional character and virgin landscape. Legend has it that Serifos was first inhabited by the Cyclopes, who were the first to discover the island's mineral wealth.

Its picturesque town (Chora) is built amphitheatrically on a rocky hill and offers fabulous views to the Aegean Sea. It is one of the most elegant Cycladic towns, whose narrow cobblestone streets and winding paths along with its cubic, flat-roofed houses create the idyllic scenery. The view from the Venetian castle in town, built in the 15th century, is not to be missed.

The island also has an impressive 72 beautiful crystal beaches scattered around its coastline as well as endless undiscovered coves and rocky spots where you can peacefully sunbathe, swim and then enjoy lunch at any of the numerous beachfront tavernas serving fresh fish and local delicacies.

PLEASE NOTE: The final itinerary will be subject to weather conditions and captain's approval. Travelive cannot guarantee the specific itinerary ahead of time.
